

Model Feature

Audi A1

The Audi A1 is the smallest model within Audi's impressive range, however its compelling good looks, high-quality interior and finish allows the A1 to be a popular choice within the supermini market rivalling against the likes of MINI Hatch, DS 3 and the Fiat 500.

Being part of the VAG Group the A1 shares the same platform as its sister cars – VW Polo, SEAT Ibiza and Skoda Fabia. This may leave some to claim the A1 is simply a VW Polo with an Audi badge and a hefty price tag, but motorists have nonetheless flocked to the baby Audi.

To keep Europe's fleet of A1's moving Comline offers a comprehensive range of high quality and value-for-money replacement parts. With a growing reputation as one of the fastest growing automotive brands in Europe serving over 40 countries worldwide, Comline provides a reliable and hugely profitable offering for the A1 which will deliver tangible results for your business.
